Heartfelt Stories from our Beneficiaries

Ghee Lim and Zen recounts their time at the Ronald McDonald House when their daughter, Ping Ann (pictured above) was admitted into the PICU for a rare blood disease.

Learn how the family of 3 from Penang, Malaysia were put on a rollercoaster of emotions; from finding hope in treatment for their child, to being put through turmoil when a brain haemorrhage occurred.

Welcoming Henno Boshoff!

Our RMHC family just grew bigger with Henno Boshoff, who recently came onboard as Secretary on the Executive Committee!

Boshoff is a lawyer at Harneys Westwood & Riegels Singapore LLP in Singapore. His practice areas are Private Client and Trust and he specialises in advising institutional trustees, wealthy families and private individuals on British Virgin Islands and Cayman Islands on legal aspects of trust and private client transactions.

Speaking about his decision to join the charity, Henno says "I have always admired the work that RMHC does not only in Singapore but as an international charity. I am honoured to serve as Secretary on the Executive Committee and look forward in being part of a great team."

Selamat Hari Raya from all of us at RMHC

RMHC Beneficiary, Ms Ismah and Family

Wishing all our Muslim friends a blessed Hari Raya. May this auspicious occasion bring along beautiful blessings and happiness to you and your family.
